

TRINITY TRIUMPH

TRINITY UNITED PRESBYTERIAN

Volume 5

Well, this isn't exactly the letter I had hoped to write for the May newsletter. Nonetheless, I believe what I am reporting is a positive move for Trinity.

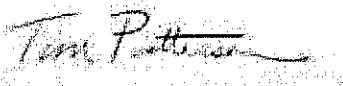

At the April session meeting I gave an update from the PNC on our progress with a candidate whom we had been talking with for several months. After a period of discernment, it became clear that Trinity is not the church that the candidate was seeking as his next call. While this is disappointing, it is important to keep in mind that it is also the best thing for both parties. If the pastor is not passionate about the mission at Trinity then neither would flourish.

Earlier, the session held off on seeking another interim because it seemed that a call was imminent. Following this recent turn of events, the session has formed a subcommittee to hire another interim. The committee members are Frank Walburg, Nancy Killian, and Floyd Sours.

How quickly we hire an interim is dependent upon who is available and how well they fit the criteria set forth by the Interim PNC. The purpose in hiring an interim is to provide better continuity in pastoral care and our worship service.

While we will still need their pastoral services, I want to take a moment to point out that we owe our pulpit supply a great debt! They have cared for Trinity and lovingly delivered God's word to us. They have done so without complaint for a longer period than any of us anticipated. Therefore let us give thanks to the work that has been done on our behalf by Dr. Schumacher, Rev. McDonald, Richard Krebbs and Rev. Millspaugh.

While the Interim committee begins its search, the PNC will continue its work as before. Since Easter we have received several new PIFs as well as some sermons to review. We will see if perhaps one of these will be the person God is calling to lead Trinity.

Scrapbooking

A scrapbooking group will meet on Tuesday May 7th at 6:30 in the Fellowship hall to share good times and supplies as you work on your projects. New people are always welcome. This group meets the first Tuesday of each month at 6:30.

Coming Soon... Presbytery Meeting

On May 18th the Presbyterian Hunger Program will be leading a workshop called "Tending the Garden of God" in the Fellowship hall from 9 to 12. They hope to offer attendees advice and suggestions on how to address root causes of hunger and poverty. They want to encourage others to take active steps towards making healthy food, healthy people, healthy communities and a healthy earth. They want to teach new ways of being that keep you grounded in faith. They want to support local initiatives and help others get in-involved in sustainable solutions.

This program is open to the public! Community food and hunger initiatives are by their very nature ecumenical, inter-faith and of concern to all. You are encouraged to invite anyone in the community who has a passion for creating healthy alternatives especially for those who don't have access to healthy food in current system. The Presbytery Hunger Program appreciates and wants to affirm how your presbytery and its congregations are involved in these issues all across their community.

I encourage everyone to take this opportunity to get to know Presbytery a little more. The Presbytery has worked very hard in the last few years to reach out and work with the various churches in our area. TUPC is a part of a much bigger network that enables us to do fabulous things when we work with intentionality towards a common goal.

"The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it." Genesis 2:15

What's up at Presbytery?

The "Retreat Ministry Mission Group" is a women's group held at the MVP Mission Center in New Philadelphia each month. They gather on the third Thursday of each month from 12:00 until 2:30 to nurture their faith through prayer, worship, and study. They are currently working their way through the book An Altar in the World by Barbara Brown Taylor. This month's reading is chapter 5, "The Practice of Encountering Others: Community". Bring a snack or lunch item to share and enjoy a time of fellowship as everyone eats prior to the beginning of study.

New members are always welcome to come as they can and to be a part of this vibrant collection of ladies! For more information or for carpooling contact Amanda Allison.

Pentecost Extravaganza! May 19th

This year we will celebrate Pentecost with a morning of music and a potluck luncheon after service.

Pentecost is the day in our church calendar when we celebrate the culmination of the 50 days of Easter and God's gift of the Holy Spirit which connects us and draws us together as one people. The Holy Spirit helps us to understand what God is doing in the world. It empowers us to proclaim, in word and deed, God's plan for the unity of all people through Christ (Ephesians 1:10)

Without the gift of the Spirit, the church dries up and withers away, and we are left with only our broken selves. With the gift of the Spirit, all things are possible. A spirit-filled community of faith opens its eyes to needs in the world and sees its missing as God's new people.

Help us remember and celebrate this important day by joining us after service in the fellowship hall.

DEACONS BEACON

The Deacons will be hosting an reception for the Graduates. This will be held on May 5th. Graduation Sunday and also Youth Sunday.

For Mother's Day the Deacons are honoring all the ladies in the congregation with a donation to Transitions. The local Battered Women's Linn, Duane Bunker.

Devotions: Elva Frick.

DEDICATION ALBUM

We recently received from the Frank Montgomery family a photo album with newspaper clipping and photos of the dedication of Trinity from 1984. This album was given to the Montgomery family from Graham & Shirley Robb. It is very interesting to see the many faces that were here then and are still here now. It is in the library for all to view.

THIS AND THAT

GRIEF SHARE will be meeting May 13 at 6:00 p.m. in the parlor and then on 27th at Mark Pi's on Maple at 6:00 p.m.

We are heading west this month! We will be going to the Route 40 Road House on the West Pike. We will car pool from the church.

May 14th. 11: 15 a.m.

Reaching our goals

Part 1

In March I asked everyone to think of what their goal was as a Christian. I asked you to write down what goal you were working on to be a better child of God or to make a difference to His kingdom. A collection of your responses was listed in the March newsletter. This month we start looking at steps to reaching some of those goals!

Goal: To encourage people to attend more church functions!

Steps: Invite them to Sunday school at 9:00! You can also invite friends to events listed in the Triumph as well as Women's Bible study at 11 on Thursdays, Men's Bible study at 7 on Thursdays, Prayer Shawls on the first Thursday at 9 in the parlor and the third Sunday at 2 at Helen Purcell, or to join you at church! After your visit make sure to call or send a note to say how much you appreciated them coming.

Goal: To learn the children's names.

Steps: One of the best ways to learn the children's names is to help with Vacation Bible school in the registration area. Helpers are always needed and the time commitment is small. You can also take a month to help with children's church. The kids want to learn your name as much as you would like to learn theirs! Or if you would like something more one on one, Amanda is happy to set you up with a child pen pal!

Goal: to smile when I say "Hello"

Steps: Consider volunteering as an usher or a greeter for one Sunday. You will get plenty of practice as you welcome members to church!

Goal: to do my best to help others.

Steps: An easy way to help others is to contribute to one of the many collections TUPC has every Sunday. Old bedding or towels can be donated to the animal shelter, clothes can be dropped off in the Eastside box, eyeglasses, ink cartridges, old cell phones and toiletries are all collected in the Narthex, and we also have a shelf to collect non perishable food items. If you'd like something a little more hands on, maybe you would like to work as a substitute teacher or assist with the Red Cross blood drive. If you like working with young girls you could help one of our girl scout troops. You could also help at FCC by serving food, assisting with 4H, doing crafts, donating items for their indoor yard sale table, or helping with the adult literacy program. If any of these things interest you, contact the office or Amanda. If you have something specific in mind that you don't see listed, feel free to ask Amanda to find you a good fit!!

Mission Connection

AT TUPC

We need help picking up sticks in "Trinity Park" and around the church grounds. All help is appreciated!

Looking for an easy way to add mission to your schedule? Every time you go grocery shopping pick up one extra item for the food pantry at church. It's an easy and inexpensive way to involve mission in your everyday life!

IN ZANESVILLE

Eastside is having its annual produce give away on Tuesday May 14th from 3-5. Come to help serve or as a participant! Call the office for more details.

Brighton will be hosting its annual seed and plant give away on Saturday May 11th from 10-2. Thousands of seeds and gardening advise will be free for the taking.

SAVE THE DATE!! TUPC will be hosting a square dance on June 22nd from 6-8. See you there!

Take home Bible Study for May — Sabbath: An Acquired Taste

Keeping Sabbath: God's Command, Not a Polite Request

We need the Sabbath even though we doubt we have time for it. Dorothy Bass, Keeping Sabbath

A study of scripture reveals that Sabbath keeping is rooted in creation. From the beginning, God has modeled the gift of Sabbath as a time not only to "catch our breath" and delight in the gift of creation, but also to take time to nurture a deeper relationship with God. As Thomas Kelly, Quaker educator, missionary and scholar, wrote in A Testament of Devotion, "The deepest human need is not food and clothing and shelter, as important as they are. It is God." At its heart, Sabbath keeping is about intimacy with God.

Through Sabbath, God seeks to sanctify us. In keeping Sabbath, we are both set apart and purified; we are made holy. No longer slaves in Egypt, we have been set free (c.f. Galatians 5:1). For that reason, breaking the Sabbath in ancient Israel had serious ramifications. In Numbers 15, a man gathering up sticks on the Sabbath was ordered by God to be put to death. As Richard Lowery in Sabbath & Jubilee writes: "It is understandable~ though chilling to modern sensibilities ~that the Bible sometimes treats Sabbath violation as a capital crime. Violating Sabbath is blasphemy because it attacks the very character of YHWH as a redeemer of Israel, the God who frees rather than enslaves, who offers lavish blessings, rather than endless toil. Sabbath is a deep symbol of Israel's intimate relationship with God." Yet still we become enslaved.

Parker Palmer in Let Your Life Speak reflects on five shadows, in particular, that enslave us:

1. Insecurity about identity and worth;
2. The belief that the universe is a battleground;
3. "Functional atheism," that is, the belief that everything depends upon us;
4. Fear of the natural chaos of life;
5. The denial of death.

Sabbath becomes the means by which we come to remember both who and whose we are.

You shall keep my Sabbaths, for this is a sign between me and you throughout the generations, given in order that you may know that I the Lord sanctify you.
Exodus 31:13

Knowing that our core identity is rooted in Christ, we are then able to function as peacemakers rather than warriors. We know that together we are the body of Christ and that God alone is sovereign. We also know that God creates, heals, and redeems out of the chaos of our lives, and that death precedes resurrection.

For Jesus, Sabbath keeping involved not only time with the Father, but also the exercise of justice toward others. The gospels record five instances of Jesus in conflict with the authorities because of healings that took place on the Sabbath. For Jesus, Sabbath keeping included inviting others out of bondage to that which enslaved them. Through such healings, Jesus modeled the Sabbath as a literal day of liberation. In another instance, when the disciples were criticized for plucking corn of the Sabbath, Jesus makes clear that "the Sabbath was created for humankind, not humankind for the Sabbath" (Mark 2:27).

With liberation comes joy. As Jesus elsewhere reminds us: "I have come that my joy might be in you and your joy complete" (John 15:11). It seems God's command is not only for our own good, but that we might know joy in our deepest being. Are we ready for such joy?

Questions for Reflection

1. What is the Sabbath commandment for you? An imperative? An invitation? How do you respond to it? With guilt? With longing? With joy? By keeping it?
2. When you read about Jesus' conflicts with the Jewish religious leaders over the Sabbath, what questions come to mind?
3. In what ways do you embrace-- fail to embrace-- the rhythm of time affirmed in scripture?
4. In what ways do you take comfort in rules or laws? Describe a time when you embraced the rules because you wanted to earn approval. Describe a time when you obeyed the rules in order to experience transformation through the Holy Spirit in your relationship with God.
5. Name those things which hinder an intimate relationship with God. Spend some time in prayer and journaling reflecting on how you might "let go" of those things and nurture a deeper relationship with God.
